

In Search of
Holiness

TRUST

Word had spread across the countryside about a wise Holy Man who lived in a small house atop the mountain. A man from the village decided to undertake the long and difficult journey to visit him. When he reached the house, he was greeted at the door by an old man who appeared to be a servant. "I would like to see the wise Holy Man," he said to the old man. The old man smiled and led him inside. As they walked through the house, the man from the village looked eagerly around the house for the Holy Man. Before he knew it, he had been led to the back door and escorted outside. He stopped and turned to the old man, "But I want to see the Holy Man!"

"You already have," said the old man. "Everyone you may meet in life, even if they appear plain and insignificant... see each of them as a wise Holy Man. If you do this, then whatever problem you brought here today will be solved."

---

*Our problems are man-made, therefore they may be solved by man. And man can be as big as he wants.
No problem of human destiny is beyond human beings.*

– John F. Kennedy